

Life is Short, Get Organized: More Project Management Skills

A Follow up workshop for experienced research staff managing multiple projects

Objectives:

- Understand how to apply project management principles to your current projects
- Investigate budget guidelines, structure and control strategies to stay on target
- Identify human resource topics and resolutions

This workshop is targeted to those who have completed the 'Getting Started in Project Management' workshop or have 4+ years of research experience.

Date: Wed, July 21, 2010
Time: 8:30am—12:30pm
Cost: $30 per person
Location: Multi Purpose Room (MPR)
Paetzold HEC, VGH

Registration & Payment deadline:
Tues, July 13, 2010
To register or for more info email:
research@vch.ca

Limited seating

Upcoming Fall Workshops

- September: Budgeting (Child & Family Research Institute)
- November: Good Clinical Practice (Providence Health Care Research Institute)

Stay tuned - registration details to follow!

This workshop is part of the Clinical Research Professional Development (CRPD) program. Attendees will receive a certificate of attendance for continuing education/professional development purposes.

Instructor: Robyn Roscoe, is Head, Strategic Planning & Project Management, at the BC Cancer Agency Genome Sciences Centre. Robyn currently leads a team of nine project managers, responsible for management of project and platform work, representing a portfolio of nearly $50m. With over 16 years experience in project management in the scientific and technical fields, Robyn is a knowledgeable instructor in this field.

PROVIDENCE HEALTH CARE
Research Institute

