

GUIDELINES

VCHRI Top Graduating Doctoral Student Award and Rising Star Award

The purpose of the Top Graduating Doctoral Student Award and the Rising Star Awards is to recognize outstanding trainee role models who demonstrate research excellence, foster research understanding through communications and contribute to the Vancouver Coastal Health Research Institute research culture and environment.

As participation at scientific conferences is an important activity in the development of a research career, this competition will support VCHRI research trainees to present at or to attend a conference with a travel award. The awards amounts are $2000 for a Top Graduating Doctoral Student Award and $1000 for a Rising Star award.
