

C2E2 Educational Series

Introduction to Health Economics

The Centre for Clinical Epidemiology & Evaluation (C2E2) is offering a series of educational opportunities in Fall 2017.

LIMITED SPACE AVAILABLE

REGISTER at C2E2.ca/educationalseriesfall2017

COURSE OVERVIEW

- Discuss how economics can contribute to decision making and what settings are best suited to the application of health economic analytical methods
- Outline and distinguish between commonly used tools for economic evaluation including cost-effectiveness analysis and cost-utility analysis
- Describe basic components of economic evaluations such as perspective, time horizon, discounting and sensitivity analysis

COURSE FACULTY

Craig Mitton, PhD
Professor, School of Population & Public Health, UBC
Senior Scientist, C2E2, VCHRI

William Hall, MSc
PhD Candidate, School of Population & Public Health, UBC
Research Associate, C2E2, VCHRI

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Contact Pamela Lee at pamela.lee@ubc.ca Visit www.C2E2.ca

WHEN

Noember 8, 2017 1:00 pm - 4:30 pm

WHERE

C2E2 at Vancouver General Hospital 7th Floor, 828 West 10th Avenue Vancouver

FEE

CAD$60 Early Bird CAD$40 (until Oct 18)

Students CAD$30 (limited to 5)
Payment methods: Visa or Mastercard

