This year-end event will bring VCH-Richmond staff together to celebrate clinical research led by inspiring front-line staff, with a focus on direct and indirect research impact on clinical care. All medical, nursing and allied professional staff are invited to attend this event, celebrating research in VCH-Richmond.

This is an opportunity to learn, support your colleagues, and become inspired by the impactful research in your (clinical) backyard to help shape future practice in Richmond. Register to enter a prize draw! For more information, contact Nasia Sheikh at nasia.sheikh@vch.ca.
