

Six months after the legalization of recreational cannabis, the landscape of research has changed and grown at a rapid pace.

BC is at the forefront of this research boom, leading the way in cannabis research with projects aimed at addressing a variety of health concerns, from substance use disorders to chronic pain and illness to neurological diseases.

CANNABIS RESEARCH 101

Date

April 25, 2019

Time

12:00 PM - 1:00 PM

Location

Paetzold Multipurpose Room
Vancouver General Hospital
899 West 12th Avenue, Vancouver

Register

vchri.ca/cannabisresearch

Featured Speakers

Dr. MJ Milloy

Canopy Growth Professor of Cannabis Science, UBC
Research Scientist, BC Centre on Substance Use

- Investigating cannabis/ cannabinoids as an intervention to address the national overdose crisis

Dr. Jeff Brubacher

Emergency Physician, Vancouver Coastal Health
Associate Professor, Emergency Medicine, UBC

- Cannabis and motor vehicle crashes: What is the evidence?

Dr. Alice Schabas

Neurologist, Multiple Sclerosis Clinic, UBC

- Cannabis use for symptomatic management in patients with Multiple Sclerosis

For more information, contact Marc Saunders marc.saunders@vch.ca or 604.875.5646.