Research Day

Thursday, October 3rd, 2019 - 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM

Join IRSI for our second annual Research Day. This interdisciplinary event will be of interest to UBC researchers working with Indigenous communities. Come out to build your networks, share your experiences, learn from others, and contribute to the direction of Indigenous community-based research at UBC.

Sage Bistro, Sage East
6331 Crescent Road, UBC, Vancouver Campus

Tentative Agenda:

9:00-10:00: Welcome and introductions

10:30-12:15: Research fair (drop-in)

1:30-3:30: Discussing Indigenous data at UBC (session available online)

3:30-4:00: Networking opportunity

Lunch will be provided

We invite researchers to share their collaborative projects via poster format. Posters will be printed by IRSI. Note: the deadline for posters is September 23rd, so please RSVP early if you plan to submit a poster (further details provided upon RSVP). If you already have a poster, you are welcome to bring it to the event. Please let us know.
